

Find These Sonoma County

Authors

at the

10th ANNIVERSARY

BAY AREA BOOK FESTIVAL

in partnership with the
GRATON RANCHERIA

Family Day
SAT MAY 4

Free admission

- 90 + Authors
- Comic book giveaways
- Star Wars Cosplay
- Lightsaber fencing demo
- Author talks on writing
- And More!

11 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Berkeley

Public Library
2090 Kittredge St.

Megan McDonald

Sebastopol author Megan McDonald, award-winning writer of the “Judy Moody” and “Stink” novel series for middle graders, as well as award-winning picture books and new YA fiction books, will be one of the story-time presenters for children.

T.J. Hendrix

Windsor author T.J. Hendrix is one of 25 Bay Area authors chosen to participate in the Family Day book market, and will be on hand signing copies of her award-winning debut middle grade novel “The Pack, The Dare, and The Draugar.”

Greg Sarris

Graton Rancheria Tribal Chairman Greg Sarris is the award-winning author of an acclaimed memoir and the new novel “The Forgetters.” He will emcee “A Showcase of Young Native Voices,” a live performance by Native teens reading their poetry and other written works.

www.baybookfest.org/familyday